General advice for your stay in Pattaya

Travel

Until recently the only transport within town were private or shared songthaews and taxi via motorbike. However, a public bus service has begun in 2006, and a metered taxi service began in late 2007, although these can be hard to find.

Simply flag down a songthaew (also known as a baht bus) and stick to its route. They generally follow a circular route along Middle Road to Soi 2 before joining Beach Road and travelling all the way along to Walking Street. Drivers will take you to direct locations. Negotiate the fares at all times and pay the driver when alighting.

Cash Machines

These are plentiful in the town. Each accommodation has an ATM close by. Ask at your hotel reception.

Shopping and services

Again there are streets full of shops catering for every need close to the accommodation in the town. Some convenience stores open extremely late if they shut at all. For those wishing to buy clothes and souvenirs, Mike's Department Store on Beach Road is a good option. Laundrettes are also on hand. Horseshoe Point has also got all the necessary facilities.

About Horseshoe Point

Horseshoe Point is a Mediterranean style resort set in beautiful countryside which offers an ideal haven for sports and leisure. It is home to various animals, particularly horses and is one of the worlds foremost equestrian centres.

The Three Kingdoms Park stands next door. This was opened in 2002 after ten years construction by the sons of Mr. Kiarti, who was a leading Chinese-Thai industrial magnate. The result is a wonderful attraction for education, religion, art and culture so that visitors appreciate cultural values of the kingdoms.

Golfers will also be delighted to know that there are ten golf courses to choose from within half an hours drive. Ten minutes away stands a 45 hole course, which you can drive to by golf buggy.

So you get the most from your stay at the resort either as a resident or for the cricket, we have arranged transport for you. Details will be passed on to your captains at the pre tournament meeting.
